

Community Connections Gala & Auction

2025

An opportunity awaits...

Center for Human Services is a community-based nonprofit youth and family services agency that has been a resource to children, youth, adults and families since 1970. Each year our Center for Human Services Community Connections Gala brings together generous members of our community to build community connections!

Our 2023 impact...

Family Support Programs Providing a place where children get ready for school, parents/caregivers increase skills and find support, students become leaders, and families connect to resources.

Behavioral Health Programs Providing individual, family, and group therapy through office-based, school-based, medical clinic-based, and home-based services, as well as substance use disorders treatment.
